CNL HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES ACQUIRES FIVE INPATIENT REHABILITATION AND SPECIALTY HOSPITALS

-- Approximately $131.1 million invested in properties in Indiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Nevada --

(ORLANDO, Fla.) Sept. 18, 2014 — CNL Healthcare Properties, a real estate investment trust (REIT) focused on senior housing and healthcare facilities, has acquired a portfolio of two specialty hospitals and three inpatient rehabilitation hospitals for approximately $131.1 million. Located in four states, the properties combined have approximately 297,110 square feet of rentable space.

“This addition to our medical portfolio gives us the opportunity to invest in two specialty hospitals and three inpatient rehabilitation hospitals that will diversify and add to our growing number of healthcare assets,” said Kevin Maddron, senior vice president of CNL Healthcare Properties. “The properties have highly qualified tenants in place that are focused on providing patients with the best possible treatment and care.”

The acquired properties include:

- A 58,353-square-foot specialty hospital in Hurst, Texas, near Dallas, leased to Victory Medical Center Mid-Cities LP;
- An 86,128-square-foot specialty hospital and medical office building in Beaumont, Texas, leased to Victory Medical Center Beaumont LP;
- A 53,449-square-foot inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Oklahoma City, leased to Mercy Rehabilitation Hospital;
- A 53,260-square-foot inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Las Vegas, Nevada, leased to Desert Canyon Rehabilitation Hospital; and
- A 45,920-square-foot inpatient rehabilitation hospital in Mishawaka, Indiana, near South Bend, leased to Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center – South Bend Campus Inc.

Lincoln Harris CSG and Holladay Properties Services Midwest Inc. will manage the hospitals on behalf of CNL Healthcare Properties.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Statements above that are not statements of historical or current fact may constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Federal Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company intends that such forward-looking statements be subject to the safe harbor created by Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements are statements that do not relate strictly to historical or current facts, but reflect management’s current understandings, intentions, beliefs, plans, expectations, assumptions and/or predictions regarding the future of the Company’s business and its performance, the economy, and other future conditions and forecasts of future events, and circumstances. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as “believes,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “intends,” “estimates,” “plans,” “continues,” “pro forma,” “may,” “will,” “seeks,” “should” and “could,” and words and terms of similar substance in connection with discussions of future operating or financial performance, business strategy and portfolios, projected growth prospects, cash flows, costs and financing needs, legal proceedings, amount and timing of anticipated future distributions, estimated per share net asset value of the Company’s common stock, and/or other matters. The Company’s forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. While the Company’s management believes its forward-looking statements are reasonable, such statements are inherently susceptible to uncertainty and changes in circumstances. As with any projection or forecast, forward-looking statements are necessarily dependent on assumptions, data and/or methods that may be incorrect or imprecise, and may not be realized. The Company’s forward-looking statements are based on management’s current expectations and a variety of risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond the Company’s ability to control or accurately predict. Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, the Company’s actual results could differ materially from those set forth in the forward-looking statements due to a variety of risks, uncertainties and other factors. Given these uncertainties, the Company cautions you not to place undue reliance on such statements.

For further information regarding risks and uncertainties associated with the Company’s business, and important factors that could cause the Company’s actual results to vary materially from those expressed or implied in its forward-looking statements, please refer to the factors listed and described under “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” and the “Risk Factors” sections of the Company’s documents filed from time to time with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, including, but not limited to, the Company’s quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and the Company’s annual report on Form 10-K, copies of which may be obtained from the Company’s Web site at www.CNLHealthcareProperties.com.

All written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary note. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to, and expressly disclaims any obligation to, publicly release the results of any revisions to its forward-looking statements to reflect new information, changed assumptions, the occurrence of unanticipated subsequent events or circumstances, or changes to future operating results over time, except as otherwise required by law.
